To provide our HR services we require full and accurate information concerning your company and employees and so cannot not be held responsible or bear any liability as a result of any incorrect information presented to us.

2. Personal Data. The personal data we hold about your employees includes their names, dates of birth, gender and home addresses. We may also handle special categories of data including criminal or medical data.
3. Data Processor. advo HR is a Data Processor and you are the Data Controller because you determine how and why the personal data is processed and we act on your behalf. We may also be a data controller where we determine the purpose for which and the manner in which any personal data is processed for example when using our online platform. We are a registered data controller with the ICO under registration reference Z7559664.
4. Legal Basis. As an HR Consultancy our lawful basis for processing your employee's data is that it is necessary for the performance of the contract we have with you to deliver HR services. We rely on the performance of the contract and our legitimate interest, as the basis for processing your employee's personal data.
5. Authentication. As part of our compliance with GDPR we will ask three data protection questions before discussing any personal information about your employees with you.
6. Who handles your employee's data? Your employee's personal and sensitive personal data is handled by dedicated HR Consultants.

Who handles your employee's data? continued. There may be occasions when your HR Consultant is unavailable. In these instances we will assign another HR Consultant to cover from within the team. This is to make sure that there is no disruption to service levels. Access to your employee's data is restricted and the HR Consultant who is covering must go through a verification process in order to gain access. This is monitored by Managers on a monthly basis and any unauthorised access will be highlighted and investigated.

7. Storage. Data is stored locally on advo systems and authentication solutions are required for access. All sensitive data is encrypted in traffic and at rest using Transparent Data Encryption (TDE) technology.
8. Safeguards. All staff and contractors must sign confidentiality agreements and undergo criminal background checks prior to joining or providing services to advo HR. There is mandatory training on privacy and security awareness Included in the induction process for all staff. Staff are given their own customers and are identified on the system. There is also inbuilt security on the system which gives staff different levels of access to data so that staff only have access to their own customer's policies.
9. Security. All data stored on staff computers requires strong passwords to access data. If laptops are lost or stolen, data confidentiality and integrity are not at risk, data can be wiped ensuring confidentiality and integrity are maintained.

Security threat and risk assessments (TRAs) are conducted and risk mitigation activities established and assigned to responsible individuals. Data is backed up regularly.

We have procedures in place to detect, report and investigate data breaches. The company and its employees would be notified of any data breach as well as the Information Commissioner within 72 hours of us becoming aware of the breach.

A disaster Recover and business continuity plan have been developed and are tested and updated regularly.

Please see advo group Personal Health Information Safeguarding document for full details which is available on request.

Hardcopy Documents Security. We work electronically however there are occasions when data is in paper form. Any documents which give details of a company and its employees are disposed of using a confidential shredding service. All staff are trained to adhere to document usage procedures and must make sure that all paper documents which give details which would identify a company or a person are disposed of using the confidential shredding service. Staff are expressly prohibited from disposing of paper into waste paper bins or to take documents out of the office unless express permission is provided for example when visiting a company for a renewal meeting.

Security. continued. E-mailing Personal Data. There may be instances when we have to e-mail a document which holds personal data to a third party as part of our duties as HR Consultants. In these instances we will encrypt the data being sent and use Transport Layer Security (TLS) where possible with third parties.

10. Third Parties. We will not disclose personal or sensitive personal information to any third parties unless specifically requested to do so by the data subject.
11. advo on line and advo on line Plus. In some circumstances we will supply you and your employees with passwords to access our on line portal. This will give you and your employees the ability to view personal data, and also provides access to our Absence Management Portal.
12. Charges. We charge either a monthly or annual fee, payable via direct debit for the provision of HR services. The amount of charges will be dependent on the scope of services we provide. The amount of fees charged will be outlined in a separate client agreement.
13. Data Retention. We have an obligation to retain records for HMRC and works and Pensions.

It is our policy to only keep employees personal and sensitive data for as long as they are needed and no longer, in accordance with Data Protection laws.

However in accordance with current laws we are obliged to retain records for a certain length of time:
